

The Bespoke Tour Operator

What we do

Hotels & Beyond is a tour operator that designs luxury travel experiences for discerning clients. We offer hotel bookings, tailor-made tours and packages to both holidaymakers and travel agents. With us you don't have to search high and low for what you need.

Unlike mass travel brands, we are entirely focused on your individual needs, and dedicated to creating experiences that cater to your unique tastes, interests and desires. We promise you one-of-a-kind trips.

Our Vision

Our goal is to deliver unique and bespoke travel experiences in the simplest way possible. That's why we eliminate the hassle of searching and booking or dealing with problems by yourself. Our experts present you with a choice of hand-picked hotels and activities that match all of your criteria.

Our highly personalized service ensures that you have a trusted travel partner to rely on for the whole duration of your trip. Our friendly, professional team and local representatives will hold your hand all along the journey – you will never feel like you've been left on your own. We establish personal relationships with each of our clients, creating an experience that is guaranteed to become an unforgettable memory.

Our Mission

With 40+ years' experience in the hospitality and tourism sector, we are on a mission to simplify luxury travel. What brought us together were the needs of our customers who voiced their demand for a different type of service.

We want to serve people who are sick and tired of being presented with thousands of unsatisfying choices and no customer support whatsoever to help them with the decision making or any problems that arise in the destination.

We are the antidote to mass tourism and mass choices. Our team provides only the best travel products, accommodation, activities and experiences – hand-picked by our experts and tailored to your needs.

Who we are

Travel is more than a career or a pastime for us. It's a state of mind. We are 3 generations of dyed-in-the-wool tourism professionals who have worked in the industry for decades and want to deliver the right kind of service to every customer.

Our team collaborates with a trusted network of worldwide partners and experts to hand-pick the best products and services at each destination where we operate. Booking one of our offers is a seamless and secure experience backed by state-of-the-art technology.

Giving Back

In these challenging times, corporate social responsibility is an integral part of our daily operations. We are highly engaged with giving back to the local communities in the destinations where we operate. Our commitment is to create sustainable programs that offer support and development to our host communities.

Let the professionals handle the hassle. Dedicate your time to one thing only – the joy of travel. Get in touch with us to discuss your travel vision!

---

FYI only: keywords

luxury travel
bespoke tour operator